Numb. 13456.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 4. to Saturday September 8, 1792.

Whitehall, September 8.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, though long accuſtomed to your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Happineſs of your People, cannot but be ſenſibly affected by the recent and moſt ſeaſonable Inſtance of it, manifeſted in your late gracious Proclamation.

Happy in the Poſſeſſion of the greateſt Bleſſings, which Liberty and Peace can confer, we feel an Indignation, proportioned to the Happineſs we enjoy, at the Attempts which have been made, by various ſeditious Practices, to undermine the Conſtitution on which thoſe Bleſſings and that Happineſs are founded, and by diſſeminating Publications, whoſe inſidious Miſrepreſentations have for their Object to excite in your Majeſty's faithful Subjects a Spirit of Diſcontent, Diſaffection, and Sedition, and to weaken their Attachment to that admirable Form of Polity, that ſubſtantial and practicable Liberty which the glorious Revolution eſtabliſhed, and the mild Government of our Princes of the Brunſwick Line has endeared to us; Publications, whoſe falſe and deluſive Principles are caculated to ſubvert all Order, Subordination and Law; to level all Diſtinctions in the State; to annihilate Eſtabliſhment in the Church; and to deſtroy every Thing which can be valuable to us as Britons.

Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we are anxious to teſtify our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for the ſalutary Meaſure which your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Affection to your People has prompted you to adopt, and to preſent our Aſſurances that we ſhall exert our utmoſt Endeavours to co-operate with your Majeſty's Wiſhes, and guard the Public Tranquillity, by diſcountenancing all ſeditious Practices and Writings, which may tend to diminiſh in the Minds of the People their Obedience to eſtabliſhed Laws, and their Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Durham.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham, are anxious to expreſs the grateful Senſe which we entertain of the recent Proof which your Majeſty has given of your paternal Care of your People, by iſſuing your late Proclamation.

We are thankful to a gracious Providence for being born under a Conſtitution unrivalled in the Bleſſings which, in it's preſent Form, it diſpenſes and ſecures to every Individual among it's Citizens: We cannot, therefore, but view with Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence the miſchievous Attempts of diſaffected and infatuated Men, who, by the Diſſemination of ſeditious Writings, calculated to miſlead the Ignorant, have endeavoured to undermine that Fabric, which it has been the Work of Ages to erect; erect; and to level, at one Blow, the Throne, the Nobility, the Church, and the State of this happy Country.

These seditious Writings and criminal Designs we trust your Majesty's seasonable Admonition, seconded by the Wisdom of Parliament and the Union of a People, who know their Blessings, will effectually defeat. Incorporated as the Ecclesiastical Establishment of these Realms is with it's Civil Polity; connected as we are with the State by all those Ties which bind the other Members of the Community; partaking with them of those inestimable Enjoyments which Liberty, founded on legal Order and Subordination, insures; we feel a common Interest with them in discountenancing, as far as in us lies, every Measure which tends to alter or depreciate that System of Government, which the Revolution established, and which our Princes of the Brunswick Line have rendered so dear to us.

But while we share these Duties with our Fellow Subjects, there are others peculiar to ourselves. It is our Province (as Teachers of Religion and Ministers of Peace) to convince the World of the Utility of Establishments by their beneficial Effects. It is our Duty, and shall be our Ambition (as the best Return which we can make to our Country, and our Sovereign for Protection) to instil into the Minds of the People the true Grounds of Christian Liberty and National Happiness, in the Principles of Civil Obedience, of Public Order, and good Citizenship; to teach them to value the Blessings, which they possess under the best of Constitutions, administered by the best of Princes; and to guard them against those specious but pernicious Opinions, which, under the Pretence of removing speculative and imaginary Imperfections, would expose them and their Country to real and permanent Evils.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Durham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Sunderland, penetrated with a lively Sense of the superior Excellence of the Constitution of these Realms, and of the Peace and Prosperity we enjoy, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Expressions of our sincerest Attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

We have observed, with the deepest Concern, the late alarming Increase of Writings, seditious in their Spirit and Tendency, and calculated to sap the Foundations of all good Government, to subvert all Order and Subordination, to lessen the Public Reverence for the Laws and Constitution of these Realms, and by filling the Minds of the Public with unnecessary Fears, to give Occasion for infinite Disorder and Confusion.

We therefore beg Leave to offer our grateful Acknowledgments of your Majesty's paternal Care, in issuing the late Royal Proclamation for the Prevention of the further Publication and Increase of such Writings; and we trust that all Ranks of People in this, as in every other Part of your Majesty's Dominions, will unite in promoting the valuable Purposes of your Majesty's Proclamation, and that the Constitution of this Country will continue, as it has long been, the Glory and Happiness of this, and the Admiration of surrounding Nations.

Sunderland near the Sea, County of Durham, June 29, 1792.

[Transmitted by Rowland Burdon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Durham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the East Riding of Yorkshire and Town and County of Hull, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Sentiments of true Affection to your Royal Person, and of inviolable Attachment to our Constitution in Church and State, and to present to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for the very seasonable Instance of your vigilant Attention to the Welfare of your People, in issuing your Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications. Convinced that we now perfectly enjoy the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty, we cannot but feel Concern and Indignation when we see Opinions disseminated, not only subversive of our happy Constitution but incompatible with that Subordination which is essential to the very Existence of Civil Society.

We feel ourselves, as Ministers of the Gospel, peculiarly called upon to inculcate the Christian Principles of Obedience to the established Government, and of quiet and peaceable Conduct towards all Mankind.

And our Prayers will never be wanting, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and loyal People, and that the Crown of these Kingdoms may descend in unimpaired Lustre to your latest Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of our Archdeaconry, the 28th Day of August, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[Transmitted by Dr. Waddilove, Dean of Ripon.]
